1. Permission to take a course for graduate credit must be obtained and returned to the Registrar by the end of the second week of the semester.
2. The decision to take a course for graduate credit is irrevocable after the deadline to do so has passed.
3. Graduate credit may be used to satisfy major or minor requirements including cognate courses only with the permission of the major or minor department.
4. Graduate credit is not applied to the total number of credits required to earn the Bachelor's degree. It is separate credit and applies only to the graduate degree.
5. A Rhodes transcript shows all credit that is earned at Rhodes by a student, including both undergraduate and graduate credit. No separation or deletion of either type of credit is possible.
