Limitations and Exclusions

DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE:

Employee: Insurance will be delayed for employees not in active employment until the first of the month, coincident with or next, following the date they return to work. Regularly scheduled vacation time is considered active employment.

Dependents: Coverage for totally disabled dependents will be delayed until the first of the month, coincident with or next, following the date the individual is no longer disabled. This delay does not apply to newborn children while dependent insurance is in effect. "Totally disabled" means that, as a result of injury, a sickness or a disorder, your dependent is confined in a hospital or similar institution; is unable to perform two or more activities of daily living (ADLs) because of a physical or mental incapacity resulting from an injury or a sickness; is cognitively impaired; or has a life threatening condition.

EXCLUSION FOR SUICIDE:

Where the cause of death is suicide:

1. No benefits will be payable for a loss occurring within 24 months after the individual's initial effective date; and
2. No increased or additional insurance will be payable for a loss occurring within 24 months after the day such increased or additional insurance is effective.

This Suicide Exclusion does not apply to Washington residents.

AD&D BENEFIT EXCLUSIONS

AD&D Benefits would not be paid for losses caused by, contributed to by, or resulting from:

- Disease of the body or diagnostic, medical or surgical treatment or mental disorder as set forth in the latest edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders;
- Suicide, self-destruction while sane, or self-inflicted injury;
- War, declared or undeclared, or any act of war;
- Active participation in a riot;
- Attempt to commit or commission of a crime;
- The voluntary use of any prescription or non-prescription drug, poison, fume or any other chemical substance unless used according to the prescription or direction of the individual's doctor. This exclusion does not apply to the individual if the chemical substance is ethanol; or
- Intoxication. ("Intoxicated" means that the individual's blood alcohol level equals or exceeds the legal limit for operating a motor vehicle in the state or jurisdiction where the accident occurred.)
- An occupational injury. However, Unum will cover accidental losses due to occupational injuries for partners and sole proprietors who cannot be covered by a workers' compensation law.
- Commission of a crime for which you or your dependent has been convicted.
- Travel or flight in any vehicle or device for aerial navigation, including boarding or alighting from it while it is being used for test or experimental purposes; you or your dependent is operating, learning to operate, or serving as a member of the crew; it is being operated by, or for, or under the direction of any military authority. (This exclusion does not apply to transport type aircraft operated by the Military Airlift Command of the United States; or similar air transport service of any other country.)
- Travel or flight in any aircraft or device for aerial navigation, including boarding or alighting from it, owned or leased by, or on behalf of your employer.
- Bacterial infection. This exclusion does not apply to you or your dependent when the bacterial infection is due directly to an accidental cut or wound.
- Service on full-time active duty in the Armed Forces of any country or international authority.
- Experimental medical procedures or investigational medical procedures.
